Teacher of Classics (FT or PT)
or Graduate Trainee
Teacher of Classics

UPPINGHAM

From the Headmaster, Dr Richard Maloney

Uppingham School has the highest ambitions for the education of our pupils. We seek to inspire and challenge them to work at the highest academic levels. We are fortunate to have wonderful facilities and fantastic, highly committed teachers who nurture and support Uppinghamians at every stage of their time here.

I hope that you will be excited by the opportunity to join us in the Classics department. We are looking for someone with exceptional gifts and skills as a teacher to make a difference to our pupils.

I look forward to meeting you.

Dr Richard Maloney
Headmaster

Classics at Uppingham

Teaching in the Classics Department is delivered by an experienced team of seven specialist colleagues.

Fourth Form (Year 9) pupils are offered the choice of Latin & Greek, Latin and Classics, and at GCSE can opt to study Latin & Greek, Latin and Ancient History. At A level we offer Greek, Latin and Classical Civilisation.

The department is housed in a suite of classrooms in the heart of the School's main quads. One of the classrooms doubles as a Classics library which is accessible to all students, and there is also a further resources room with a wide range of audio and visual material.

The department has a long tradition of running popular annual trips

About the role: Teacher of Classics

We seek to appoint a first-rate teacher of Classics from September 2024.

This position would suit an ECT, or might also suit an experienced teacher looking for a part-time role. Part-time applications are welcome from candidates who are not necessarily able to teach all of the Classics disciplines. The ability to teach Greek is not an essential requirement for any candidates for this role.

This position would also suit a recent graduate looking to train and qualify as a teacher whilst working. A graduate trainee would gain experience in a well-resourced department, working with a team of committed specialists. A training year would involve completing a University of Buckingham PGCE leading to QTS at the end of the year whilst teaching a suitably reduced timetable. A trainee teacher would have full responsibility for their own classes during the year, guided by their mentor, and would also undertake teaching placements in a different school setting.

Teachers at Uppingham play a full part in the life of this seven-day week boarding school, by taking on responsibilities in addition to classroom teaching. The co-curricular programme is exceptionally varied and includes a wide range of sports, CCF, community service and the Duke of Edinburgh Award. Each teacher is also attached as a tutor to one of the School's fifteen boarding houses, or the new day house opening in September 2024.

Accommodation may be available.

About the person

The person appointed will be a strong, dynamic character with excellent subject knowledge, a good degree, good classroom management skills and an appropriate rapport with pupils. The abilities to communicate well and to work as part of a team are essential. The successful candidate will have high personal and professional standards, with well developed pastoral instincts. Experienced candidates will have a track record of excellent teaching.

Teaching at Uppingham

Remuneration and Benefits

The School has its own salary scale for qualified teachers, which is reviewed annually. The scale starts at £35,627 and progression is possible to £64,859. The School offers an extensive range of benefits including a school fee discount scheme for children of staff, free gym membership, subsidised medical scheme, excellent pension scheme, and free Westfield Healthcare and Rewards package which includes discounts in retail outlets, restaurants, cinemas and with holiday providers.

All members of staff are expected to live within reasonable distance of the School so that they can contribute to boarding school life easily and effectively. Assistance with reasonable removal expenses is provided. School property is sometimes available initially, at a subsidised rate, for those who wish to rent, and some partly furnished flats are provided for those coming straight from university or overseas. Most staff prefer to buy their own houses in due course, and there is a wide range of property available in the town and surrounding villages.

One of Uppingham's great community strengths is dining in house. Each day teaching staff are invited to lunch in a boarding house; a genuine pleasure in the midst of a busy week.

Life in Rutland

Rutland – England's smallest county – is located in a beautiful part of the country. Alongside the stunning countryside, with Rutland Water only six miles away, there are a mass of leisure pursuits on our doorstep.

The town offers a range of independent stores and its location allows access to a number of thriving cities and towns. Uppingham is equidistant between Peterborough and Leicester which have excellent shopping centres, and Leicester, Nottingham and Birmingham all enjoy first-class theatre and concert facilities. Cambridge can be reached in 50 minutes and Oxford in an hour and a half. London is an hour by train from Corby, Kettering or Peterborough.

Maidwell Hall, situated in neighbouring Northamptonshire, is part of the Uppingham Group of Schools and educates pupils from Reception to Year 8. Uppingham town has nurseries, two maintained primary schools and an 11-16 community college, with sixth form colleges in nearby towns, such as Oakham and Stamford. There is a considerable community of young children within the area.
